

1. CONSTITUENCY CONSULTATIONS

1.1 Tog-dher Mission

The members of parliament elected from Tog-dher region(Buraou and its surrounding areas) started their tour in the capital of Tog-dher region, Buraou and paid visits to the Central Hospital, Central Prison, Regional Education Office and also visited the under construction road between the Buraou and Odweyne town.

When the MPs finished their supervision mission in Buraou and the other districts of the region they met with the elders, students, intellectuals and the youth living in the region.

During the three nights of the mission, the MPs invited constituencies to a dinner in which they discussed with the locals on the general situation of the region. The communities in the region gave the MPs brief information about their localities. They told the MPs some complaints about the health, security and the lack of unemployment causing a great number of youth to migrate.

At the conclusion, the MPs promised to submit region's needs to the government.

1.2 Hargiesa Mission

The Members of parliament elected from Marodi-jeh region toured the various districts of the capital, Hargeisa and other districts of the region and met their constituencies their four-day mission started from Gabiley district.

During their Gabiley visit, the MPs supervised Gabiley Hospital and the local government then moved forward to meet the mayor of Gabiley Mrs Khadra H. Ismail. She gave them an overview about the current situation in Gabiley town.

Following this, the MPs met with the clan elders and the intellectuals of the district and gave with a dinner in one night and discussed on how to develop their region without waiting an outside help.

The members of parliament also visited Balli-gubadle and Salahley districts both located South of Hargeisa. The MPs gave dinner to the communities of Salahley and Balli-gubadle district to discuss how to develop and improve the community essential needs.

1.3 Awdal Mission

The members of parliament elected from Awdal Region took a supervision mission to their various constituencies of the region to make consultation. The MPs supervised the courts, schools, hospitals, police stations in the region. Then after that, they met with the community of Borama in three consecutive days and discussed the region's socio-economic needs such as the security, health, education and the other development initiatives in the region.